FOREWORD

IF our labors in compiling this volume have been such that in years to come, when the brightness of TOMORROW has faded into the dusk of YESTERDAY and our years of service gradually draw to a close, we can open this book and look back, with hearts again youthful, on the days when we were happiest, when the foundations of love and friendship, service and loyalty, were laid, and in memory live again the days spent at FAIRMONT STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE, our aim and purpose will have been fulfilled.

JOHN WESLEY PENCE was born in Hamilton, Ill., January 16, 1897, the youngest child in a family of six. At the early age of sixteen, he was graduated from Hamilton High School. He was valedictorian of his class and took part in various high school activities, including baseball and track.

In the fall of 1913, he entered Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio, a Congregational college, from which he graduated in 1917, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree, magna cum laude. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was extremely active in class and literary activities. In addition, he served as evening reference librarian in the Oberlin College library.

In May, 1917, he enlisted in the United States Army, serving until May, 1919. He was overseas for one and a half years in Italy and France. With other members of his service unit, including Robert M. Hutchins, now president of the University of Chicago, he was awarded the Italian War Cross (Croce di Guerra).

In 1917, he married a fellow Oberlin student, Miss Helen Jones, of Sistersville, W. Va. The marriage took place November 16, in Wheeling. To them have been born two fine young sons, Ned, aged twelve, and Bob, aged nine.

Mr. Pence, recipient of the Carnegie Fellowship in International Law Award and Scholarship in Public Law, studied in Columbia University in 1917-1918. He was employed by the Cities Service Company in valuation work in Kansas City, Mo., and Bartlesville, Okla., from 1919 to 1921.

In the fall of 1921, he became head of the Department of Economics and History in Yankton College, Yankton, South Dakota, where he served until 1923. It was in this year that he received his Master of Arts degree from Oberlin College.

The same year he became a member of the Department of Business Administration, Kansas City Municipal University, Kansas City, Mo., where he remained until 1926. During the summers of 1924, 1925 and 1926, he was Guest Lecturer in Government in Central Missouri State Teachers College, Warrensburg, Mo.

In 1926, Mr. Pence came to what was then Fairmont State Normal School. He served as instructor until 1928, when he also was selected Dean of Men. In addition to serving as Dean of Men at this time, he is professor in Economics and Political Science and is recognized by other instructors in these fields as one of the outstanding instructors in the country.

This most distinguished and versatile gentleman, of whom Fairmont State Teachers College is justly proud, is a member of the Masonic Lodge and the American Political Science Association.

BEHIND us are four years during which we have absorbed in a large measure, we believe, the spirit and tradition that emanates from Fairmont State Teachers College.

The past with its many successful days is gone. The assuming of a greater dignity and with this a greater responsibility comes to us as a final phase of our education. The Senior College Class of '32 entered Fairmont State Teachers College as a vast number of truly green youngsters. Now, as we look back, we are mystified by the melowing influence of time, how it has made our class one of which we are inordinately proud.

The Senior College Class has been active in athletics and in other extra-curricular activities. In the fields of scholarship and fellowship, the Class of '32 is to be congratulated for its aggressiveness.

It is our sincere hope that after our graduation, the spirit which we have delved with in our four years of campus life will continue to develop and inspire us in future loyalty to our Alma Mater.

THE outgoing tide has washed the past three years into oblivion, but to the members of the Junior College Class of 1933 the memories of these few college years will always remain foremost in mind.

This class, the largest Junior College Class ever enrolled in Fairmont State Teachers College, may glance with pride over its preceding years. The members have no apologies to offer concerning their attitudes, of which we assume there are none required. Faithfully they have labored and in one brief year they will be ready to step out into the world at large. The accomplishments of this group sound and re-sound through the corridors of the college. The college may look forward, and to be sure within but a few years, with expectations of receiving many compliments echoing the life work of these individuals.

During the darkest hours, the Juniors have always managed to rally and to accomplish the problems that at first were a stumbling block. So, they may now look forward with optimism to the gigantic tasks to be accomplished next year.

SEPTEMBER

Sept. 14—Registration. Great to the disgust of the student body and great to the delight of Blanche Price.

Sept. 15—Freshmen still scurrying to and fro trying to outfrown Miss Lewis in the registration line.

Sept. 16—Classes officially open. Everybody attends but the upperclassmen.

Sept. 17—Two-hour class meetings. Colebank delivers a one-hour address cautioning everyone not to miss his class.

Sept. 18—Teachers declare war. Stiff assignments for Monday.

Sept. 21—Monday. No one had his lessons. Teachers tolerant.

Sept. 22—Colebank misses his class.

Sept. 23—Cramers Crooners organize at Harry's Dope Shoppe.

Sept. 24—Cramers Crooners disband at the urgent request of Squire Pete Hamilton.

Sept. 25—Doc Suddarth decides to attend a class.

Sept. 28—Freshmen are given some chiropractic attention.

OCTOBER

Oct. 1.—Forrest Crane's marriage is announced. Are we all surprised!! Leaves begin to fall. Paddles too.

Oct. 2—Forrest is too bashful to come to classes.

Oct. 3—Indiana leaves her hoofprints all over our goal line.

Oct. 4—Gamma's and Tri Sig's straighten out who belongs to whom.

Oct. 9—California erased Indiana's hoofprints around our goal line.

Oct. 10—Frat men open domiciles for inspection. Being Saturday, we assume everyone took a bath.

Oct. 11—Sabbath. A day of rest.

Oct. 12—Teachers all threw quizzes. Unrest.

Oct. 16—Eagles of Morris Harvey whitewash Teachers.

Oct. 19—Hotsy Totsy Club organized. Fred Harless, First President; James Dellosa, Foreign Correspondent.

Oct. 24—Teachers are taught by Potomac State.

Oct. 27—"Shooting Shadows," with Zundell, Bloom, Evans, Doolittle and others, lays student body in the aisles. Frank Dudley very effective as the dead man.

Oct. 31—Bethany had a track meet over the Teachers' noses. Dave Harmon did not arrive on time and Ann Miller's Hallowe'en party did not materialize.

THIS YEAR witnesses the exodus of another contingent of potential teachers in the members of the Senior Normal Class of Fairmont State Teachers College. These students go out to fill the vacancies in the West Virginia elementary school system. There is no doubt but that this group, one of the largest ever to be granted certificates by the institution, will reflect a great deal of credit on this college and its faculty when the accomplishments of these people as teachers are made known.

This year's Senior Normal Class has been an especially industrious group. Members have been active in dramatics, athletics, and other forms of extra-curricular activity.

Fond memories will be left by this class upon graduation at the completion of the present term. The undergraduates wish the members of the Senior Normal Class of '32 the greatest of success in the years to come.

NOVEMBER

Nov. 4—Tau Beta Iota's "go over" big with excellent vaudeville.

Nov. 6—Gridders leave for Huntington.

Nov. 7.—Whew! What a breeze! Marshall ran circles around our boys.

Nov. 9—Blue Monday. Footballers return from the south. Tom Evans much the worse due to nightmares. All he could see in his dreams were the flying heels of Zontini.

Nov. 10—Nightmares still prevail.

Nov. 13—Gamma Chi Chi's make their debut on the social calendar—and what an affair! Piracy prevailed and female "swabs" were on deck.

Nov. 14—Sing "Hallelujah!" We beat Shepherd, 31-to-0. First football victory in years. The town was ours.

Nov. 16—Holiday granted. Band, in new uniforms, "goes over" as we all march downtown. Hot time in gym at night as school throws victory dance.

Nov. 19—Lost the final game of the season to Salem.

Nov. 20—Tau Beta Iota's put on gala "Turkey Strut" to the tune of Eddie Barrett's orchestra.

Nov. 24—Pan-Hellenic Dance. S-o-m-e party! Ross Edwards Collegians flood Armory with deluge of melody and rhythm.

Nov. 25—Thanksgiving holidays begin. Premeditated attacks on turkey inculcate great rejoicing.

DECEMBER

Dec. 1—Turkey hash consumed, everybody back to digest knowledge.

Dec. 2—Classes half-attended. Teachers lecture, assign and dismiss early.

Dec. 3—Colebank attends one of his classes.

Dec. 4—Chris Lolos starts hanging around in the halls looking for "Pal." Sophomores trip the light fantastic to Reese Henry's rhythm.

Dec. 7—Everyone is remarking about the weather and the depression.

Dec. 9—Y W's throw a Charm School on the second floor. John Hornyak attends.

Dec. 11—Beta Psi Beta's hold a formal. Omicron Pi's have open house.

Dec. 16—Sigma Tau's open their house. First basketball game won from California.

Dec. 17—"Hayfever." Ann Miller, Bob Nunn, Wilbur Knight and Ann Rigg shine.

Dec. 18—Student mix. Everyone there but the students. Christmas vacation starts.

JASPER H. COLEBANK

Head Coach and Athletic Director

Since 1924, Jasper H. Colebank has served as head coach and director of athletics at Fairmont State Teachers College. One has but to glance over the records of the various teams during this period to realize how important he is to athletics in the college.

Coach Colebank came here in 1924 after coaching at several Monongahela Valley high schools. He has served as head football, basketball and baseball coach at all times. However, he this year turned the coaching of the baseball nine over to his assistant basketball mentor.

FRANK A. ICE

Assistant Football Coach

Frank A. Ice, former Fairmont High School mentor, came to Fairmont State Teachers College as assistant football coach in 1931 and proved to be a highly successful addition to the staff. It was possible with Ice helping Colebank to divide the squad into groups so that special attention might be given to each player.

Ice's record speaks for itself. He turned out powerful teams at Fairmont High, where he coached until 1927, when he resigned to enter the sporting goods business in Fairmont. He was coach of the state championship basketball team of Fairmont High in 1927. It is sincerely hoped by the student body of the college that he and his fighting spirit return this coming fall.

CHRIS LOLOS

Assistant Basketball and Baseball Coach

Chris Lolos, of Chicopee Falls, Mass., became acquainted here while playing baseball with the late Fairmont Middle Atlantic League team. In the winter of 1931, he attended school here, after graduating at Villanova College in Philadelphia two years before.

He was appointed reserve basketball coach this year to succeed Edward Rothlisberger and turned out a strong team. This spring, Coach Colebank turned over the baseball reins to him. He has had plenty of baseball experience and it is believed he will produce a strong team.

Playing one of the stiffest schedules in their history, the Fighting Teachers of Fairmont State Teachers College enjoyed a good season, despite seven defeats as against one victory. The 1931 eleven improved to such an extent as the season progressed that it is believed the team of 1932, minus only two of its members, will be one of the most powerful in recent years.

The opening engagement of the season was played on Rosier Field against Indiana (Pa.) State Teachers College, Saturday, October 3. Two excellent scoring opportunities were presented to the Teachers but Dame Fortune was on Indiana's side both times. In the early stages, Fairmont carried the ball deep into Indiana territory. Reddick, substituted for Jones, and Altman, who had been calling signals from the start, both attempted to call the plays and before things could be straightened out, a five-yard penalty was inflicted for consuming too much time. The team could not recover and lost the ball on downs. On another occasion, Fairmont took the ball toward the Indiana goal only to be halted almost on the zero mark. Indiana, by a series of line plunges, scored in the second quarter and kicked goal for a subsequent 7-to-0 triumph.

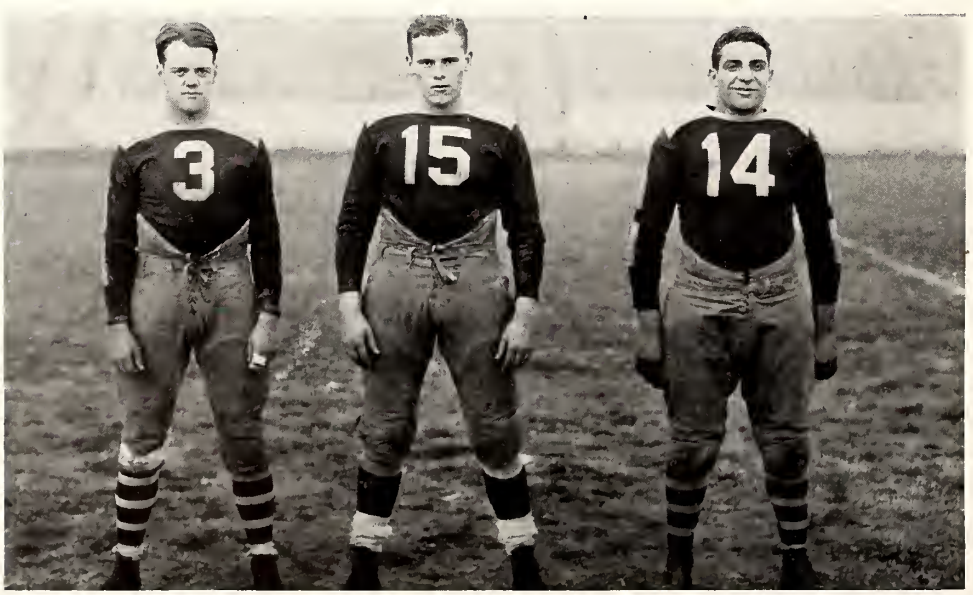
GAME BY GAME—(Continued)

Another Pennsylvania rival, California State Teachers College, was met here in the second game and walked off victorious, this time by a score of 7-to-6. The teams waged a scoreless battle for the first two periods. Early in the third quarter, Bilotta recovered a California fumble on the enemy 49-yard line. The pigskin was carried down the field in short order and Jenkins went over for the first touchdown of the season for Fairmont. Tedrick failed to boot the extra point. California did not give up, however, and retaliated in the last 15 minutes with a touchdown and goal of its own to win.



Tom Evans Bob Tedrick Frank Bilotta

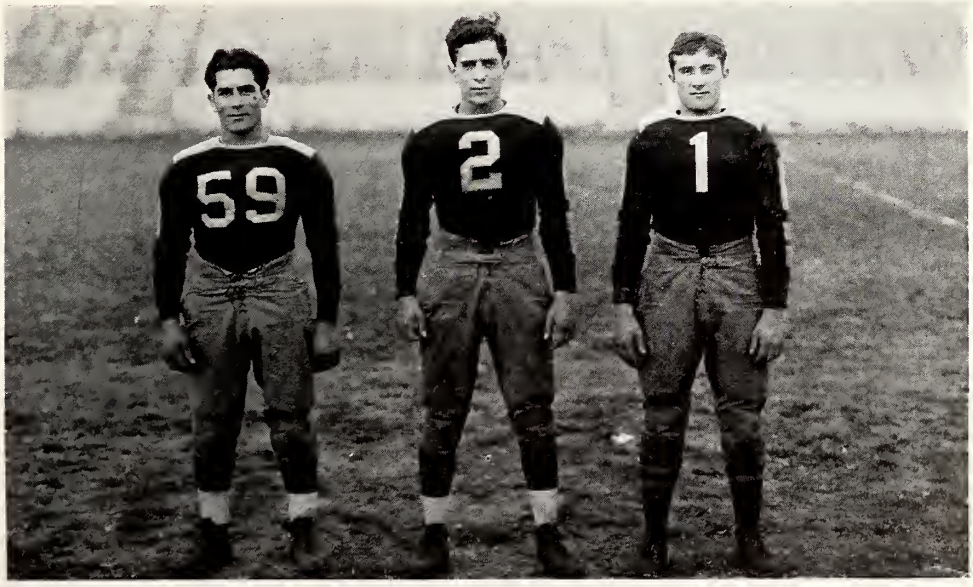
Playing at home for the third consecutive week, Fairmont fared no better, falling before Morris Harvey College, initial West Virginia opponent, 6-to-0. The eleven coached by "Gibby" Welch, Pitt's all-American back, came into a touchdown in the second period when Reddick punting from behind his own goal, kicked to Young, speedy Morris Harvey back, who took the ball on his own 42-yard line and paraded through the entire Fairmont team for a touchdown. Fairmont did not offer a serious scoring threat but fought Morris Harvey on even terms during the other stages of the game.



Ross Gerard Frank Lombardo John Hornyak

The first game abroad was played in Grafton, Saturday, October 24, against Potomac State College. The final score showed a 12-to-0 triumph for Potomac. The first three quarters were scoreless but Potomac opened up a whirlwind attack in the last 15 minutes and punched over two touchdowns.

Fairmont met Bethany away the next week-end and suffered its most disappointing setback of the year, 27-to-0. Bethany, like Fairmont, had not won a game since 1929 when the Bisons had beaten Fairmont. That wet, cold afternoon, the Bisons did practically as they pleased against a Fairmont team that looked worse than at any other time during the fall.

The next game, played at Fairfield Stadium, Huntington, was an easy win for the strong Marshall College outfit. When the game was over, Marshall had rolled up 60 points to Fairmont's none. Zontini was Marshall's prize bet of the day, while Jones was the only Fairmont back who was able to gain with any degree of consistency.

Returning home after three games on the road, Fairmont came into its own Saturday, November 14, when it swamped Shepherd College, 31-to-0, and thereby hung up its first win since 1929 when it beat Shepherd here, 6-to-0. Shepherd had earlier in the season beaten Potomac State, 19-to-0. The Teachers were in rare form that day. Scoring a touchdown in the first period, they started a parade that Shepherd could not begin to halt, all in spite of a muddy field and slippery ball. Jones went over for two of the touchdowns and Reddick scored three. Tedrick kicked one of the extra points. The victory was celebrated the Monday following with a half-holiday.

The campaign was closed at Salem, Friday, November 20, with an 18-to-0 loss to Salem College. Fairmont played good football throughout but was not quite as strong as the Tigers. Too, Salem had luck on its side that day, converting two Fairmont passes into touchdowns. Reddick was hurt early in the game and Fairmont's offensive was handicapped.

ALTHOUGH not as successful as predicted, the 1932 basketball season of Fairmont State Teachers College was one of the best in recent years. Twelve games were won and 11 were lost. The schedule was the most difficult ever arranged for the courtmen.

The season was inaugurated against California, Pa., in a game played here, December 16. The Teachers won without a great deal of trouble by a score of 35-to-26. The next night, however, they were thrown for a loss by Marietta College on the Ohio floor, 31-to-17. The next game was with Broaddus here after the Christmas holidays and Fairmont scored at will to win, 49-to-33. Salem threw a monkey wrench into the cogs, but the team came right back with triumphs over Concord and Morris Harvey. The next step was Wesleyan and Fairmont stepped to the tune of 56-to-35. The first half ended, 17-to-16, but an injury to Bonar's foot ruined Fairmont's offensive and the Teachers were no match for the Bobcats in the last half. In the last game before the end of the semester, Bethany was taken into camp at Bethany without the services of Bonar.

After a rest of two weeks, Fairmont defeated Marshall's crack team here, 33-to-32, in one of the most thrilling contests of the year. Bonar was high point man with 12 tallies. A two-day trip to the eastern panhandle resulted in a victory over Shepherd and a setback at the hands of Potomac. In the annual homecoming game, played Saturday, February 13, Wesleyan again took the measure of the Fighting Teachers, 63-to-33. The first half was nip-and-tuck but Hull, Wesleyan forward, who caged 13 field goals and four in five fouls, most of which came in the second half, led a Wesleyan attack that was invincible in the closing stages.

Three of the four games on the annual southern invasion were dropped, but the team returned home to win two tilts, one over Bluefield and the other over Potomac. The Teachers gained revenge for the licking the Keyserites handed them on their own floor but they had a tough time doing it. Broaddus turned in a surprise victory over the men of Colebank who were off form. Salem also repeated its win over the locals, but they won from Shepherd for the second time. The game with Bethany closed the season. Bethany won after a hard fight.

Coached by Chris Lolos, the reserve basketball team of Fairmont State Teachers College came out on the winning end of most of the games it played. The team was not flashy but played exceptionally good basketball at times.

It is expected that several members of the reserve team will become members of the varsity squad of 1933.

College Club Basketball

THE past year marked the inauguration of a new unit in the basketball facilities of Fairmont State Teachers College. This unit, composed of first string reserves, was entered in the City League under the name of College Club. The players who composed the squad are as follows: John Hornyak, George Zundell, Bob Garrett, Frank Lombardo, Jack Donnachie, Staggers, Pat Cosgray, Fay Hughes, Frank Talbott, James Clara, and Harry Adams.

The College Club proved itself to be the class of the league and deservedly won the championship, winning five games and losing only one encounter to the Bakers which was protested. The protest was granted due to the ineligibility of players on the winning aggregation, abling the College Club to annex the championship on the merits of an unblemished record. By virtue of their records the members of the team were presented with handsome silver medals.

Although this addition to the College basketball organization was formed at the last minute to fill out the quota of independent teams in the league, enough interest was displayed to warrant the continuance of such a team in the future. We, The Mound Staff, wish to compliment the players of this group on their splendid record of the past season and hope they shall be able to uphold it in the future.

FAIRMONT STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE enjoyed a highly successful baseball campaign in 1931, winning seven games and losing seven for a percentage of .500. Unlike the situation in previous years, the nine was weak in fielding, but strong in hitting and other departments.

Among the outstanding members of the team were Francis Huber, first baseman, who was one of the best batters on the club; Jack Dawson, second base, and Frank Lombardo, second base, and outfield; Herb Bonar, brilliant shortstop, who also ranked among the leading hitters; Ellis Pyles, third sacker, and Jimmy Clara, third sacker and outfielder; "Butch" Horuyak, catcher and outfielder; Pete Beatty, pitcher and outfielder; Hugh Machesney, pitcher, infielder and outfielder; Arlie Toothman, outfielder; Jimmy DeBrucque, pitcher and outfielder; Larney Gump, catcher; and Johnny Hess, catcher and outfielder.

Morris Harvey was beaten three times, California twice and Salem and Marietta once each. Marshall and West Virginia were the only nemesis the Teachers encountered.

Prospects for a winning team this year are bright, with all of the regulars from last season back in the fold, except for three, and with a number of new prospects on hand. Chris Lolos, assistant basketball coach, will be head baseball coach this spring, Director of Athletics and Head Coach Jasper Colebank serving in an advisory role.

A VARSITY tennis team was organized for the first time on the campus of Fairmont State Teachers College last spring. The netsters succeeded in winning the majority of their matches, trimming Salem twice and D. & E. once to give them three victories. Two matches were lost, both of which went to California, Pa.

Jack Sharp, one of the outstanding younger tennis players in Fairmont, was elected captain of the team last year and played position No. 2. Fred McIntyre played position No. 1. Other members of the squad were Delmar Yost, Londo Brown, Lontz Vincent, Kurtz Mattingly, Rex Manley, "Happy" Altman and Forrest Crane.

Much of the success of the team was due to the direction and supervision of C. A. Lindley of the History Department, who took an active interest in the players and guided them through their schedule.

All of the members of last year's squad, with the exception of McIntyre, will aspire for positions again this spring. McIntyre was graduated.

Intra-Mural Athletics

THE outstanding part of the intra-mural athletic program conducted by Fairmont State Teachers College this year was the men's basketball tournament. Teams representing the Tau Beta Iota, Sigma Tau Gamma, and Omicron Pi fraternities, the Non-Frats, and the Sophomore and Freshman classes entered.

From this group, the Freshman quint, coached by "Hayseed" Hawkins, emerged the winner. The plebes defeated the Tau Beta Iota cagers in the final game, 26-to-14.

In the first round games, the Tau Beta Iota team eliminated the Omicron Pi outfit, 36-to-18; the Sophomores illegally defeated the Sigma Tau Gamma, 16-to-12, and the Freshmen knocked off the Non-Frats, 23-to-13.

The Tau Beta's and Sigma Tau's mixed in the first game of the second round, the Sophomore victory over the Sigma Tau's having been ruled out because the second-year men used an ineligible player. The Tau Beta's bested the other fraternity team, 24-to-14. The Non-Frats were redrawn to fill out the lower bracket and again lost to the "frosh," 28-to-9.

The final game was a heated affair. At half time the score was 5-to-3 in favor of the losers. The Freshmen rolled up a commanding lead. Once behind, the Tau Beta's got rough and fouled to the extent that they lost the game on this point. The winners had 24 chances at the foul line in the last half and made good 13 of their shots.

Student Council

FAIRMONT STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE inaugnrated student government in 1907, under the direction of Dr. C. J. C. Bennett, president of the institution at that time. Student government has been in nse ever since. At one time, there was a misunderstanding between the president of the school and the president of the stndent body and it was thought stndent government wonld not last. However, the government continued to exist, even though it went for ten years without a constitution, the first constitution having been lost and no other one drafted.

The Student Council has been very active this year and has been instrumental in a number of improvements made on the campus. There has been the nsnal rontine bnsiness of which the council has disposed.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

THE Executive Committee is composed of seven members, two students being added in 1931 by a constitutional amendment. The Committee has complete organization and administration of the social calendar and the granting of privileges. Its duties have been performed in a manner highly satisfactory to the organizations and clubs which are subordinate to the Committee. The vice-president of the Student Body, who is automatically the chairman of the Committee, the two deans serving ex-officio, one additional faculty member, and three students compose the group. The latter four are selected by the committee of the whole.

Tau Beta Iota

THE Tau Beta Iota Fraternity was the first social fraternity to be established on the campus of Fairmont State Teachers College, being organized in November, 1925, by a group of young men fraternally minded who knew that in the future there would be an increasing demand for social centers. College spirit was the first objective to be furthered and promoted by this group of young men. Besides this, many other worthwhile projects were undertaken. A high scholastic goal was set which soon made the Tau Beta Iota Fraternity an outstanding part of the college.

It is aimed by the fraternity to select men for its members who are outstanding in the lines of extra-curricular activities and scholastic work.

The social functions of this group are always held in high esteem by the student body in general. When worthwhile projects are accomplished, one may always look for a T. B. I. "behind the scenes."

Sigma Sigma Sigma

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA Sorority made its appearance on the college campus in May, 1930, when the local Tau Tau Tau, second oldest sorority, became nationally affiliated with the oldest known of national educational sororities. Sigma Sigma Sigma was founded at Farmville, Va., in 1898, and has to date 32 active and 26 alumna chapters.

The aims of the sorority are to establish among its members a perpetual bond of friendship, to develop in them strong womanly character, and to impress them with the high standards of the teaching profession. This group believes that only through friendship and fellowship can a truly democratic spirit be developed on the campus, and it is attempting to do its bit toward developing this spirit by extending an offer of friendship and cooperation to every organization. A high scholastic standing is stressed and it has the largest active membership this year in its history.

Sigma Theta Rho

THE SIGMA THETA RHO Sorority, third social sorority on the campus, was recognized by the Student Council, October 17, 1929. There were eighteen charter members. The group has been active in social and other campus affairs.

Sigma Theta Rho aims to promote fellowship, loyalty, honor and good will among its members and among other campus organizations. It directs its efforts toward those things which will develop a democratic spirit and which are for the common welfare of the college. It is the desire of the sorority to be broadminded and it is striving to carry out the ideals which make such organizations as Sigma Theta Rho possible.

ALPHA DELTA CHI was the fourth social sorority to be formed on the campus. It became an active organization the first week in December, 1930, when the 18 charter members were duly recognized by the student council.

The aims of Alpha Delta Chi are to uphold and help to carry on the traditions of the college, to promote a true democratic spirit and to aid in making the name of Fairmont State Teachers College revered and honored. This organization also endeavors to maintain a high scholastic standing. Several of its members made honor grades the first semester of this year.

Alpha Delta Chi was honored this year by having one of its members elected managing editor of The Columns.

One of the outstanding events of the social calendar was the "Who's Who on the Campus Tea" sponsored by the Alpha Delta Chi's.

FAIRMONT COLLEGE'S chapter of Alpha Psi Omega is the first of a long and distinguished line—a line which has lengthened in the six years since its inception under Paul F. Opp, Grand Business Manager of the national organization and editor of The Playbill, the fraternity's magazine, to a grand total of more than 80 chapters.

The chapter roll includes the names of many of the leading colleges of the country. University of Maryland, Iowa Wesleyan, Washington University, Colgate, Temple, University of South Carolina, and numerous others.

The fraternity is purely an honorary one, designed originally for the purpose of rewarding students interested in the field of drama for faithful and enthusiastic service and achievement. Not only is work displaying a histrionic talent credited for eligibility to the fraternity, but also that work which contributes valuable service incidental and necessary to the production of dramatic works. By thus crediting all work incidental to production along with a definitely stated amount of acting points, the fraternity is able to bestow its reward to a representative group of dramatists.

HAVING been founded in 1921, the Y. M. C. A. holds the honor of being one of the oldest campus organizations. The foremost purpose of the "Y" is to lead students to faith in God and thence to better living. It serves as a gathering of serious and sincere men students, regardless of fraternity, nationality, or religion, to study the problems of the college, the state, and the nation.

In fulfilling its purpose, the "Y" has proved to be a worthwhile organization for both the men students and male members of the faculty. The "Y" maintains a book exchange and candy store in the Administration Building. The organization also publishes and distributes the Student Directory.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, the oldest organization on the campus for women, has a membership of more than 100. The aims of the association are: to broaden religious experience, to develop social attitudes, to help build character, to develop leadership, to widen horizons, to help girls to grow, to serve the campus, community, and state, and to give girls something to do.

Some of their specific work has been: welcome for new students, Charm Schools, Christmas pageant, Vespers, Mardi Gras, social service work, banquets, and parties.

Unusual interest and enthusiasm has been shown in the organization this year.

FOR the first time, the Schubert Choral Club and the Boys' Glee Club have been combined, making one big chorus for this year's work. The chorus has shown excellent training in its presentatiton of "The Hallelujah Chorus," from Handel's "Messiah," "The Heavens Are Telling," by Haydn, and many other lighter numbers. These productions demand great skill and mastership when given as the composers intend.

The combined chorus proved the high standard set by Miss Mary B. Price, director, to whom an abundant amount of credit is due for the wonderful presentations offered by these young singers.

THE TRI-V LATIN CLUB was founded at Fairmont State Teachers College in the fall of 1929. Its sponsor, Miss Alice Virginia Cook, then a new member of the faculty, developed the organization until it now is a member of a national honorary Latin fraternity. It was organized with the aim of stressing the importance of training Latin teachers and promoting social intercourse among the Latin students.

Each spring the Tri-V has an initiation week for Freshman Latin students, following which is a Roman Banquet which is carried out in Roman style. The Latin Club presents a program in chapel each year.

This is an honorary organization whose chief purpose is to develop a deeper and more widespread interest in the study of French by an intelligent presentation of French ideals and culture. The most noteworthy achievement of the club for this year was the presentation of a program, entirely in French, before the Student Body. Perhaps the most interesting feature of the club's activities is the use of French exclusively in all meetings.

FORMATION of the Social Science Club on the campus of Fairmont State Teachers College took place in September, 1931, under the direction of Dr. I. F. Boughter, head of the department of history. The organization was formed for the purpose of expanding interest in social studies among students of the college. Membership is open to all social science majors and minors.

Dr. Boughter was instrumental in organizing the West Virginia Intercollegiate Council of Social Sciences, which met for the first time December 11 and 12, 1931, in Fairmont. This conference proved a huge success and will become an annual affair.

The start gained by the Social Science Club here this year will serve as an incentive for the club to reach higher goals in the future and it is believed that the organization will become one of the outstanding groups on the campus. Already it is in the spot light.

Jan. 18—Fairmont wipes off the whitewashing the Eagles of Morris Harvey gave them in football. John Ford wrote a good column in the student weekly for once.

Jan. 19—The Gipper from Wesleyan had Fairmonts' water on and the Teachers came out 21 points in the red. Tom Evans made money on the trip, the team not eating after the game because it lost.

Jan. 20—Y W's had another Charm School. Hornyak took some of his friends along.

Jan. 21—Ralph Waldo Emerson Bonar had to stay home and take care of his hurt little toe but the cagers downed Bethany at Bethany just the same. Hornyak met a dizzy blonde.

Jan. 22—The Sigma Tau's held one of the best dances of the year in the gym. Beautiful decorations and beautiful women harmonized in the huge floodlights while Eddie Barrett and his boys beat out lively fox trots.

Jan. 25—Examinations begin. Mrs. Thomas hires two young chaps to pour water on the mimeograph machine.

Jan. 26—College presents Frank Lombardo with a medal of merit for leaving his tincan in the garage.

Jan. 27—Worried expressions on homely visages.

Jan. 28—Anxiety over. Supplanted by devil-may-care expressions.

Jan. 29—"Drown your sorrows" is the slogan.

Jan. 30—Get to the postoffice before your pater does.

FORENSIC ACTIVITIES

Intercollegiate Debating

THE largest squad in the history of Fairmont State Teachers College intercollegiate debating was active this year. Twenty men responded to the call for candidates. The squad was cut to twelve members at the end of the first semester, nine of this group engaging in intercollegiate activity.

The schedule was the most extensive ever attempted by the debaters, who were coached by Dr. I. F. Boughter of the History Department. Twenty-seven intercollegiate debates were held and seventeen different schools were debated. The schools debated were Waynesburg, Slippery Rock, Shippensburg, and California in Pennsylvania; Kent, Bowling Green, Akron University and Mount Union in Ohio; and Wesleyan, Glenville, West Liberty, Bethany, Potomac State, Shepherd, and Concord in West Virginia.

Three subjects were debated during the season. They were as follows:

"Resolved, That for our production and distribution of goods for commercial purposes, the United States adopt centralized governmental control based on the fundamental principles of the Stuart Chase plan."

"Resolved, That capitalism as a system of economic organization is unsound in principle."

"Resolved, That Congress enact legislation providing for the centralized control of industry."

High Spots Of Season

Western trip—West Liberty, Slippery Rock, Kent and Mount Union were debated. Powers, Jackson, Troynar and Richmond took part.

Eastern trip—Potomac State, Shepherd, and Slippery Rock debated. Balassone, Brown and Fordyce participated.

Ohio Tournament at Baldwin Wallace, Berea, Ohio—Two teams were entered in the tournament. Team A, composed of Brown and Balassone, went to the semi-finals, being defeated by Akron University, which in turn won the tournament. Team B, composed of Troynar and Richmond, was eliminated in the tri-finals by Bethany.

Radio debate with Kent State College—This was an Oregon type debate. Powers, Balassone and Jackson upheld Fairmont. Much favorable comment was received by listeners.

State Debate Tournament held in Fairmont under the auspices of the West Virginia Intercollegiate Speech Association, of which Dr. Boughter is secretary-treasurer. Ten schools entered the contest, including Shepherd, Potomac State, Davis Elkins, Glenville, Morris Harvey, Marshall, Concord, West Liberty and Fairmont. The local tmrnament team composed of Brown and Balassone was defeated by Concord, the team which won the tournament. Prof. W. H. Parrish, Debate Coach, University of Pittsburgh, was the expert judge.

————oOo————

The season brought a variety of experiences. Decision and non-decision debates were held, single, three and five judges were used in the debates, and the traditional and Oregon plans of debating were used.

Dr. Boughter expressed himself as well pleased with the season. The nine men used were James Balassone, Lloyd Brown, Justin McCarty, Clarence Jackson, Paul Powers, Neil Richmond, Anthony Troynar, Joel Jackson and Joseph Fordyce.

The season was closed April 5, when Dr. and Mrs. Boughter entertained the squad at their home. Suitable awards were presented to those who had participated in five or more intercollegiate contests.

DRAMATICS

SHOOTING SHADOWS

THE MASQUERS opened a most successful season with a decided hit by presenting on October 27 and 28 a three-act melo-mystery by Carleton-Manley-Howard, "Shooting Shadows."

Given as it was at the heighth of the Hallowe'en season, the play was most appropriate. The action of the play was continuous and took place in a large room well supplied with strange devices, small cupboards, many doors, and myriads of cobwebs, in a deserted farmhouse in the Berkshires. Dead men, strange noises, startling apparations and peculiar happenings on the mystery side, side-splitting comedy, and a tender love thread combined to make a most pleasing, well-balanced production.

The cast as a whole was unusually well cast and all gave sincere portrayals of their respective parts. Charles Zundell, a newcomer to the local stage, had the crowd roaring by the clever handling of his part. Rae Carroll also shared honors in the comedy roles. Nancy Ruth Haught and Ralph Doolittle were most pleasing as the juvenile leads. Irving Smith and Eugene Robinson provided unusual lighting effects and an attractive stage for the play.

THE CAST

Doctor Hemingway	JOHN BLOOM
Dana Ellsworth	RALPH DOOLITTLE
Phyllis Hemingway	RAE CARROLL
Claire Kirkland	NANCY RUTH HAUGHT
Noah Flood	CHARLES ZUNDELL
Dead Man	FRANKLIN DUDLEY
The Chief	PAUL POWERS
Johnny	JOHN RIGGS
Frank	HARRY WELLS

Hay Fever

NOEL COWARD'S "Hay Fever" scored an unmistakable hit when this three-act comedy was presented December 15 by the Masquers. A packed house witnessed the production.

It may be authentically stated that the cast of this show was probably the most talented group ever to be assembled for a Fairmont State Teachers College production.

The setting of the comedy is laid in the summer home of "David Bliss," an author who is quite famous in London circles. The entire action of the play takes place in the "Bliss" household near London.

Ann Rigg, in the role of "Judith Bliss, " led the cast. Her performance was brilliant. Tom Evans, as "David Bliss," scored another hit for himself when he portrayed David to a professional degree. Ann Miller and Robert Nunn, although newcomers to the local theatrical group, gave very good enactments of the Bliss children.

THE CAST

Sorel Bliss	ANN MILLER
Simon Bliss	ROBERT NUNN
Clara	HELEN HAGGERTY
Judith Bliss	ANN RIGG
David Bliss	TOM EVANS
Reggie Tyrell	EUGENE ROBINSON
Myra Arundel	ELOISE POSTLETHWAITE
Richard Greatham	WILBUR KNIGHT
Jackie Coryton	EMMA HEIM

SPRING FRET

OR the second consecutive year, Fairmont State Teachers College carried off first place in the Intercollegiate One-Act Play Contest, which was sponsored by Shepherd College, February 27, 28 and 29, in Shepherdstown.

The local entry was "Spring Fret," written by Richard Parrish, Fairmont newspaperman. The play was directed by Lawrence Wallman, dramatic director.

The scene of the play is laid in a railway station in Beaumont, a small town, anywhere. The cast consists of four male characters.

Mr. Wallman again used the double casting system. The cast used in the contest was composed of Lawrence Robey as Dazzy, Edward Eardley as Jersey, Paul Powers as Pop, the station agent, and John McIntire, the Boy. Robey also was used in the other cast. The other parts were played by Charles Zundell, Ralph Doolittle and John Riggs. Both casts as well as Irving Smith, stage manager, were taken to the contest.

If Fairmont wins the contest again, it will be in permanent possession of the silver loving cup.

FEBRUARY

Feb. 1—Chris Lolos was asked by Miss Prichard to be more quiet in the halls.

Feb. 2—Charlie Reed took Alice Cunningham to dinner at the Fairmont Hotel.

Feb. 3—Tom Evans sent Jeanne Wilson six "specials."

Feb. 4—We walloped Marshall, 33-to-32. What a sizzler? Plenty of blood was shed, especially by Rogers, Marshall's handsome "man killer." Forrest Crane made his debut as a Central Board referee in the reserve game. Came out with a penitentiary shirt on.

Feb. 5—Everybody skipped so that they would have a longer week-end.

Feb. 6—Saturday. Scrubbing.

Feb. 7—Sunday. "No business."

Feb. 8—Orchestra practice.

Feb. 9—Potomac beat us at Keyser.

Feb. 10—The basketball boys had a hard time getting to classes. They didn't get home until 3 a. m.

Feb. 13—Homecoming. Wesleyan ran wild in the second half and snowed us under. Big dance afterwards. Somebody stole "Happy" Altman's girl, "Peg" Sturm.

Feb. 14—Sunday. Team leaves for south on an invasion.

Feb. 15—Team loses first game,

Feb. 16—Same story, second verse.

Feb. 17—Same story, third verse.

Feb. 18—We won a game, beating Bluefield.

Feb. 19—Boys jaunt home.

Feb. 22—Big Bi-Centennial Celebration. Mr. Lively speaks.

Feb. 23—We beat Bluefield here. Floor slippery and players constantly fall down and go boom.

Feb. 26—Potomac is conquered here. Herb Bonar shines.

MARCH

Mar. 1—Broaddus pulls biggest upset of the season. Beats Fairmont at Philippi. Rumors were that the boys asked Coley where they were going to eat after the game. He told them. At home, for breakfast.

Mar. 2—Sturm and Altman skip two of their morning classes.

Mar. 3—Salem noses out Fairmont in the last minute.

Mar. 4—Sectional tourney begins.

Day By Day

Mar. 7—First snow of year. Shepherd gets beat by us. They send only five men. Others snowbound.

Mar. 9—Basketball season ends with Teachers losing to Bethany.

Mar. 11—Tri Siggers throw expense dance to buy Catmeat.

Mar. 17—Bessie Crystal's Sigh Betas Sigh throw a St. Patrick's Day tea dance. Brothers of the Bucket organize for the shaming of pepilitories. Attend dance in body.

Mar. 18—Morrow Hall formal. Tim McCoy, two-fisted lad from West Newton, was there and reports that it was a LOVELY affair. The girls looked gorgeous and the refreshments were delicious.

Mar. 19—Mally Boor's Essex stalls just like her old Haines used to.

Mar. 22—Alpha Delta Chi's held a tea dance in honor of something or other, with cakes.

Mar. 24—Easter holidays begin. A chicken walked in the T. B. I. house and laid an egg on the top step. If we hadn't seen the hen, we'd a swore it was left by the Easter bunny.

Mar. 25—Ralph Doolittle ends his "Do Nothing Campaign" as picture editor of The Mound. T. Evans leaves for Wheeling to see little Jeanne.

Mar. 27—Corsages and rain, snow and hail.

Mar. 28—More snow. More work on The Mound.

Mar. 29—Teachers are getting a little bit fussy. All the Brothers of the Bucket have their mustaches off but Ford and Hornyak.

Mar. 30—Louise Heim looking much better. Expecting George soon.

Mar. 31—March goes out like a lamb, but the wind is blowing

APRIL

Apr. 1—All Fool's Day. T B I dance packs 'em in. It was a wow, especially the signs. Even Cap Price was jubilant.

Apr. 2—Jocko Sharp and Carmel Phillips try to pull an April Fool prank. There's a time and place for everything, lads.

Apr. 4—The good word is passed around the college that Flatwoods Hyer is running for assessor of Braxton County on the Republican ticket. That's as bad as running Oran Henderson for president of the student body.

Apr. 5—We'd like to tell you more but the situation is out of our hands. We gotta get out The Mound. We're sitting here looking all glum at our typewriter like Fatty Palmer will gaze at Tate when she goes away to far off Cuba to teach the little Cubans how to inhale Cubebs. Our work is done. See you all in the fall.

SCENE FROM MAY FESTIVAL OF 1931

An annual feature of the college year at Fairmont State Teachers College is the colorful and picturesque May Festival, at which the May Queen, selected by vote of the student body, is crowned. Many departments have combined to make this year's festival larger than ever and it is anticipated that it will be a more gala affair than in previous years, although it has always been stupendous. For the last two years, the fetes have been held on Rosier Field and have attracted hundreds of persons from Fairmont and other towns. Several hundred students will participate in this year's festival.

It is our sincere hope that it pleases you. The labor which such a publication requires has been enormous to say the least, but if you, after reaching this point in the book, are pleased, we shall feel that our efforts have not been futile. If you are displeased, may your criticism be merciful.
